GROUP VISIT GUIDE 2017

www.kentlife.org.uk

DISCOVER KENT LIFE

Located in the Garden of England and set in 28 acres of distinctive Kent countryside, Kent Life offers a unique look back at traditional Kentish life. Explore our collection of historic buildings, stroll through our gardens, enjoy a tour on our land train, meet our new resident Owls at the Kent Owl Academy or take time out to refresh the senses in Dotty's Tea Room.

Your group will be welcomed from their coach and given an overview of the Kent Life experience. To further enhance the visit, why not consider one of our packages? You can even enjoy a scrumptious afternoon tea on the courtyard terrace. Special menus and discounts are available for pre-booked groups.

Why not join us to celebrate the special events taking place throughout the year? We have fantastic events every season. From the arrival of our new lambs at Easter, to our Hops 'n' Harvest Beer Festival – with a chance to pick your own hops! The year ends with our Bonfire and Firework Spectacular and the opportunity to step back in time with our WW2 event – “Christmas on the Home Front”.

GROUP PACKAGES

Garden Tours

Why not come along and explore our gardens, guided by the Kent Life gardener, Debs Reason. Debs will lead you on a tour through our Kitchen and Herb gardens – with a question and answer session afterwards. If time allows, why not get hands on and help us with our pruning! (Max 25 people per 30 minute session).

Adults: £9.95, Concessions: £8.95, Child: £7.95

Prices (including admission and tour)

You are more than welcome to come along and explore Kent Life at your own pace, entrance prices are as follows:

Adults - £7.95

Concessions - £6.95

Children (aged 3-15) - £5.95

UK School and Language School rates are also available.

Group rates are valid for a minimum of 15 paying visitors. You are welcome to spend as long as you like at Kent Life. Off peak rates also apply.

Hoppers Delight (available April - September)

Begin your day with a tour and tasting at Shepherd Neame Brewery in Faversham, followed by a delicious lunch of 'Shepherd Neame Pie'. You will then make your way to Kent Life, where you will join us for a tractor tour of the site, discovering the historic houses and meeting the farm animals. Visit our Oast house and our Hop Garden, planted with Fuggle and Goldings Hops, where you will learn about hop picking. Depending on the time of year, you may be able to have a go yourself as we select bines and pick hops ready for the brewing process. Your efforts will be rewarded by the Tally Man with a tasty Cream Tea.

Prices £31.50 per person (over 18's only)

(Own travel arrangements are required)

Field to Fork

Are you interested in good food? At Kent Life we don't only serve delicious Kentish fare in Dotty's Tea Room, we also grow our own! Operating our own smallholding, we grow fruit, vegetables and rear animals the traditional way. We don't use pesticides or fertiliser, but with our home-made compost, companion planting, heritage varieties and free range animals, everything is full of flavour and as natural as can be. We'd be delighted to show you round our farm on a truly seasonal tour that takes in orchards, gardens and animals, telling the story "from field to fork". The tour takes 45 minutes to 1 hour and will take place outside.

Adults: £9.95, Concessions: £8.95, Child: £7.95

Prices (including admission and workshop)

Rag Rug Making

A craft of the past that has made a modern-day comeback! In days gone by, ordinary people used the materials they had available to make their homes comfortable and pretty. They used strips of old material to make warm rugs to cover draughty floors or even beds. Today, using vintage tools, we use this technique to create a beautiful rag rug piece that could be turned into a scatter cushion or wall hanging. All materials will be provided, no previous experience needed. The workshop takes about 1.5 hours. "I could do this for hours! It's very satisfying".

Adults: £9.95, Concessions: £8.95, Child: £7.95

Prices (including admission and workshop)

REFRESH THE SENSES

Why not use one of our stunning historic buildings to enjoy a lunch or cream tea? The Wagon Store boasts wooden floors and hop strung beams, our Vintage Village Hall may also be used, ideal for afternoon tea.

Alternatively, members of your group may wish to arrange their own refreshments. Dotty's Tea Room offers a variety of hot and cold lunches or the more traditional cream tea. In the fair weather, you are welcome to use the Garden terrace and soak up the fabulous atmosphere.

We have a range of catering options available – our suggestions are shown below:
